Dear Sir,

Thank you for submitting the resumes of the twelve men that you've picked for management positions in your new organization. All of them have now taken our battery of tests and we've run the results through our computer and have given them personal interviews with our psychologist and vocational aptitude consultants. Here are the conclusions.

It's the staff opinion that most of your nominees are lacking in background, education, and vocational aptitude for the type of enterprise that you're undertaking. They do not have the team concept. We would recommend you continue your search for persons with experience in managerial ability and proven capability.

Simon Peter is emotionally unstable, given to fits of temper. Andrew has absolutely no qualities of leadership. The two brothers, James and John, the sons of Zebedee, place personal interest above company loyalty. Thomas demonstrates a questioning attitude that would tend to undermine morale. We feel that it's our duty to tell you that Matthew has been blacklisted by the Greater Jerusalem Better Business Bureau. James, the son of Alphaeus, and Thaddaeus, definitely have radical leanings. Both registered a high score on the manic-depressive scale.

One of the candidates however shows great potential. He's a man of ability and resourcefulness. He meets people well, has a keen business mind, and has contacts in high places. Is highly motivated, ambitious, responsible. We recommend Judas Iscariot as your controller, treasurer, and righthand man.

All the other profiles are self-explanatory. We wish you every success in your adventure.

Sincerely yours,

The Jordan Management Consultants'
